

Broadmead TRADITION

From independent living to assisted care to rehabilitative services, Broadmead offers the home, the surroundings, the care, and the lifestyle that's right for you — all with your needs and discerning standards in mind.

The Stony Run Meeting of Friends (a Quaker organization) founded Broadmead as a way to serve the needs of older persons. It opened in 1979 as a private, not-for-profit, continuing care retirement community. Broadmead continues to operate under the guidance and ownership of a Quaker-guided, not-for-profit corporation.

When you need us,
WE'RE HERE.

Whether you require short-term or long-term healthcare or rehabilitative services, Hallowell Comprehensive Care Center at Broadmead is here for you. Our resident-centered focus allows you the freedom to enjoy an independent lifestyle while receiving the exceptional health and rehabilitative services you need. With Broadmead's history of excellence, and our outstanding resident satisfaction rating, rest assured you'll be in good hands.

Customized Care

Tailored to your individual needs, Hallowell Comprehensive Care Center caters to those who are recuperating from an injury or illness, and those who are experiencing chronic medical conditions.

Our exceptional staff is dedicated to ensuring your everyday needs are met during your recovery, and with Certified Nurse Practitioners and physicians on-site, your well being is our top priority.

For those requiring specialized care, access to top quality physical, occupational and speech therapies is available, as well as on-site access to specialists such as dentists, ophthalmologists, podiatrists, audiologists, and more.

Your Home Away From Home

At Hallowell Comprehensive Care Center, your satisfaction and comfort is of utmost importance. With a selection of private or semi-private accommodations, you'll truly feel right at home with the ability to bring your own furnishings.

All residents receive three delicious meals a day from a selection of Broadmead's exceptional dining venues. Snacks and refreshments are available anytime — day or night. Our personalized care allows residents to enjoy a variety of Broadmead's social activities, independent interests, and spiritual pursuits as desired. Inside and out, the beautiful, serene Broadmead campus and amenities help residents unwind and focus on their health and recovery.
